Time: 3:00 p.m. - 4:00 p.m.

LOCATION: UMF, NORDICA AUDITORIUM

Join the Maine Balkan Choir with special guest Elitsa Stoyneva for a festive afternoon of old world village singing and dancing. The Maine Balkan Choir specializes in the traditional open throated singing style of the Balkan countries. The songs, with their unusually close harmonies, modal melodies and complex mixed meter rhythms are full of heart and directness and the messages that they express are universal. The choir was originally formed to perform a single benefit concert. 20 years later they are still singing, drawn together by their mutual passion for the haunting sound of Balkan music. The choir will be joined by soloist and seven time gold medalist, Elitsa Stoyneva of Turgovishte, Bulgaria.

The concert will be held at Nordica Auditorium on the U Maine Farmington campus on Sunday, March 11th at 3 pm and is sponsored by ArtsFarmington. Ticket prices are $12 for adults; anyone 18 or under is free as are UMF students with an ID. No one will be turned away.
